

CAMPING

The Grant family liked to take trips. They took trips in the summer.

[Are/ One/ Raid] summer they went to the [hopes/ beach/ finish]. It was fun but very hot. Another [summer/ table/ change] they went to the lake. They [stayed/ rights/ quiet] in a cabin and slept on [then/ cots/ pick]. That trip was fun, too. They [also/ two/ with] went to Washington. That is where [the/ home/ can] president lives. They did not [how/ see/ cape] the president but they drove by his [house/ tries/ some].

"Where should we go this summer?" [every/ could/ asked] Dad. "I don't know, Dad," said Tom. "[How/ Me/ Was] either," said his sister Angie. "I [look/ right/ just] want to take Laddy with us, [please/ heater/ should]." Laddy was the family dog. She [fire/ was/ dirt] so big that the Grants could [not/ when/ soot] take her many places.

"I have [dot/ an/ you] idea," said Dad. "We will go camping. [Bus/ The/ Live] Great Smoky Mountains are pretty in the [summer/ lotion/ table]. We'll go there and camp. We [rat/ ate/ can] take Laddy and we'll all sleep [in/ be/ do] tents."

The family began to make [asks/ here/ plans]. Dad got the tents and the [wood/ frog/ tear] for camp fires. Mom packed the [sale/ pick/ car]. "Did we forget anything?" asked Dad. "[We/ Sat/ Fly] forgot Laddy!" said Angie. She ran [goes/ fog/ back] to the house to get the dog. Laddy climbed [came/into/ you the car and the family was [skip/ off/ top].

They drove for a long time and [jar/ corn/ then] stopped at Camp Wiki. Dad set [was/ do/ up] the tents and Mom unpacked the clothes. Tom [and/ tar/ we] Angie started the campfire and they roasted hot dogs [lone/ over/ tire] the fire. "These are so good," [pull/ job/ said] Tom. "May I have another hot dog, [please/ sitter/ magic]?" "Yes," said Mom and she passed [clear/ another/ where] hot dog to Tom.

The next day they [train/ went/ slip] to the caves. A guide showed [them/ witch/ gone] through the caves. It was dark [bald/ note/ and] cold down under the ground, and Tom [took/ cart/ your] pictures to show his friends. It [looked/ other/ hello] like a magic place down in [ask/ the/ lot] caves.

"May we take the tour [again/ mint/ were] tomorrow?" said Angie. "That sounds like [he/ do/ a] good idea to me," said Dad. "[At/ I/ Go] think this will be the best [holds/ summer/ break] trip we have ever had."
